

The S-LP Alumni Association presents:

The J.F. Walker Lecture
sponsored by the Donalda Jean McGeachy Memorial Lecture Series

Cognitive-Communication: Skills for Successful Living

Featuring clinical and research perspectives from the fields of speech-language pathology and psychology, and implications for assessment and treatment

Sheila MacDonald M.Cl.Sc S-LP Reg. CASLPO

Sheila MacDonald & Associates, Guelph, Ontario

When "mild" is not mild: Management of subtle but significant cognitive-communication difficulties following concussion and other acquired brain injuries

Dr. Gary Turner Ph.D C.Psych

York University, Toronto, Ontario

Neural networks in aging and brain disease:
A new frontier for assessment and intervention

Date: Friday, June, 12th, 2015
Time: 8am - 12:30pm
(Delicious hot breakfast included)
Location: The Great Hall, Hart House
University of Toronto
7 Hart House Circle, Toronto
Price: $110 early bird
$135 after May 20th

Organized by the University of Toronto Speech-Language Pathology Alumni Association

Register: http://my.alumni.utoronto.ca/2015_JFWalker

Questions: slp.alumni@utoronto.ca